Candidates

Q7. I want to be a candidate in these elections. What do I need to do?

- A You must be a New Zealand citizen and your name must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand).

When lodging your nomination, proof of citizenship will be required (e.g. copy of passport, birth certificate or citizenship certificate).

You will need to have two electors registered in the area of the election you are standing for to nominate you – e.g. if you stand for the Thames Ward, the nominators will need to be registered within that ward. (Note the candidate does not need to reside in the area in which they are standing but will need to disclose that fact in their candidate profile statement.)

Nominations open on Friday 15 July 2022. If you would like a nomination paper and candidate information handbook sent out, please contact the electoral office closer to this date. Nomination papers will also be available on the council's website (www.tcdc.govt.nz) from 15 July 2022.

A candidate information handbook will be available in May 2022

Candidate campaigning can commence any time prior to the election (no time restriction), but any expenditure made, within or outside the three-month applicable period before election day, must be accounted for.

Q8. How much will it cost me to stand?

- A You will need to pay a nomination deposit of $200 GST inclusive. This deposit applies to each election (position) you stand for.

Your nomination deposit can be paid by electronic bank transfer, EFTPOS, credit card or cash. Cheques will not be accepted.

If you poll greater than 25% of the lowest polling successful candidate (for FPP elections), you will receive your nomination deposit back.

Q9. What qualifications and experience do I need?

A Nothing formal. Elected members come from all walks of life and generally have a will/desire to serve the community.

All (or some) of the following capabilities will be useful in the elected member role:

- quality decision-making
 - political acumen
 - leadership
 - cultural awareness
 - strategic thinking
 - knowledge and understanding of Thames-Coromandel District Council and local government
 - communication and engagement
 - relationship building and collaboration.

Q10. Does a criminal record stop a person standing as a council candidate?

A No.

Q11. How long is the term of the elected member?

A Three years.

Q12. Do I need to be resident in the area I am standing for?

A No, but you must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand) and be a New Zealand citizen (by birth or citizenship ceremony). You will however need to disclose whether or not you reside in the area you are standing for in the candidate profile statement.

The two people who nominate you must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll within the area you are standing for.

Q13. How many positions can I stand for?

A You can stand for mayor, a ward councillor and a community board member, but if you are elected to more than one position, you take the highest ranked position.

You cannot stand for more than one ward or for both the Thames-Coromandel District Council and the Waikato Regional Council.

Q14. Can I withdraw my nomination as a candidate?

A Only if it is withdrawn before the close of nominations. You cannot withdraw voluntarily after nominations have closed. If you decide to opt out, your name will still appear on the voting document. If you do change your mind and decide not to run for election after you have been nominated, let the electoral officer know who will talk through the issues with you.

However, if you become incapacitated with serious illness or injury and unlikely to be able to perform the functions and duties if elected to office, an application to withdraw your nomination on those grounds can be made. Verification from a doctor or a lawyer about your situation will be required. See the electoral officer if you need more information about this process.

Q15. What is a candidate profile statement?

A You may provide a candidate profile statement when you lodge your nomination. This is a statement of up to 150 words containing information about yourself and your policies and intentions if elected to office. The profile statement will be included in the voting packs that all electors receive.

Your candidate statement can be submitted in both Māori and English, but the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language. Each language has to be within a 150-word limit.

In addition, your candidate profile statement must state whether or not your principal place of residence is in the area you are seeking election, e.g., 'My principal place of residence is in the Tairua-Pāuanui Community Board area', or 'My principal place of residence is not in the Tairua-Pāuanui Community Board area'. This is not part of the 150-word limit.

Your profile statement must be true and accurate. The electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in your statement.

Your profile can include a recent passport size colour photograph.

See section 61 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 for more information.

Q16. How much can I spend on my campaign?

- A There is a limit on what you can spend on your campaign and it relates to the population of the area you are standing for.

The maximum amount that can be spent by a candidate cannot exceed the limits set out below:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
Up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000 – 9,999	$7,000
10,000 – 19,999	$14,000
20,000 – 39,999	$20,000
40,000 – 59,999	$30,000
60,000 – 79,999	$40,000
80,000 – 99,999	$50,000
100,000 – 149,999	$55,000
150,000 – 249,999	$60,000
250,000 – 1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

* plus 50 cents for each elector

For example, a candidate for the Mercury Bay Ward (which has a population in the range of 10,000 – 19,999) can spend up to $14,000 inclusive of GST.

If you stand for more than one position, the amount you can spend is the highest amount for one position. You cannot add positions together to allow you to spend more than the limit.

Please note any expenditure made by a candidate for an election campaign is funded by the candidate and is not refundable by the council to the candidate.

All candidates are required to lodge an electoral donations and expenses return within 55 days after the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected (by 9 December 2022).

If a candidate is outside New Zealand on this day, the return must be filed within 76 days after election result day.

If a return is not submitted within the required time period, the non-return will be advised to the New Zealand Police for enforcement.

The return needs to be received before a candidate nomination deposit is refunded if appropriate.

Q17. Can I raise campaign funds from donations, and can I claim expenses?

- A Yes, you can raise funds and claim expenses from your campaign. There is very specific legislation about donations and expenses which you need to abide by.

See the electoral officer if you need more information.

Q18. When is the campaign period?

- A Election campaigning can start at any time and continue up to and including election day.

Q19. Can people already elected onto council use council resources to campaign?

- A No, elected members cannot use council resources for their campaigns.

Q20. Are there any rules about using social media?

- A Yes. Councils have policies or guidelines for web and social media use related to campaigning. They will not permit council social media pages to be used by anyone (candidates or members of the public) for electioneering or campaigning in the three months before election day. Councils monitor their websites and take down any campaign related posts.

Q21. Can I help people vote or collect their voting documents to send in?

- A No, candidates or their assistants should not collect voting documents from electors. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer.

It is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000 if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising the elector as to how he or she should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in facilities such as rest homes or hospitals.

Q22. When do nominations close?

A Nominations close at 12 noon Friday 12 August 2022.

It is strongly recommended that candidates do not leave lodging their nomination until the last day, as to do so may mean having to queue and should there be an error with the nomination, little time to have it corrected.

You will automatically appear on the electoral roll that is used for these elections.

Or

A Is this your main place of residence?

- Yes
Are you on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll at an address in the Thames-Coromandel District Council area?

There is no online voting option available.

➤ Yes

Please wait until the mail has been delivered on Wednesday 21 September 2022. If your voting document is not received, then please call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

➤ Yes

You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q45.

A Is it after Wednesday 21 September 2022 and I believe I am not correctly registered on electoral roll?

➤ No

You will need to complete a Parliamentary Electoral Roll enrolment form. These are available at any New Zealand Post agency, or you can enrol online at www.vote.nz or ring 0800 36 76 56 or send your name and address to Freetext 3676.

You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q45.

Q33. I didn't get my voting document, so I called and got a special vote. Now I have two voting documents. Which one should I use?

A Use the original one and destroy the special vote.

Q34. I received a voting document for a member of my family (e.g. child, parent) and have Power of Attorney for that person. Can I vote for that person?

A No – Power of Attorney does not apply to voting for that person.

Q35. I received a voting document for a member of my family (e.g. child, parent) who does not live here. What should I do with the voting document?

A If they are overseas, you could fast post or airmail it to the person or destroy it if that is not practicable.

If they are for an elderly parent who is incapable of voting, please destroy it by ripping/cutting it up. You cannot vote on their behalf unless instructed by them.

Q36. I received a voting document that does not belong to me and I don't know this person or where this person has gone. What do I do?

A Write GNA (Gone No Address) on the envelope and put it back in the mail.

Q37. What is that barcode that I can see through the return envelope or on the front of the voting document?

A It is a legal requirement to scan the barcode to mark the electoral roll that you have returned your vote so we can ensure that we do not receive two votes from the same person.

Q38. How do you ensure the secrecy of my vote?

A Returned envelopes containing a voting document cannot be opened until there is a JP present. The JP is required to sign off that the processes used by the electoral officer met the legal requirements.

Note that the voter's name is not shown on the voting document.

When the envelope is opened the only thing the electoral office is looking for is that the vote for each election is valid.

This means that for FPP elections we are making sure that the voter's intention is clear and the voter has not ticked or marked more than the number of candidates than there are vacancies.

Q39. I don't know any of these candidates. Do I have to vote?

A No, you don't have to vote, but we do encourage you to vote and exercise your democratic right.

You don't have to vote for all candidates or for all elections. But your vote is important because the people elected will be responsible for making decisions about what happens in your community for the next three years.

To help you get to know about the candidates:

- There may be candidate meetings being held in your community if you wish to go and hear what policies the different candidates are advocating for.
- There is a candidate profile booklet that comes with the voting document in which there is a photo and a statement from each candidate. This information will also be available on the council's website (www.tcdc.govt.nz) after nominations close (expected 19 August 2022).
- Candidates may have their own website, social media page(s), advertise in local newspapers or send out information to letterboxes in your area.
- Local media are likely to cover information about the election.

Q40. Do I have to post my voting document back?

- A You can post it but make sure you have it in the mail by Tuesday 4 October 2022 to make sure it gets back to us in time (by 12 noon Saturday 8 October 2022).

However, you can also hand deliver your voting document to a ballot box during the voting period (Friday 16 September 2022 to 12 noon Saturday 8 October 2022).

For ballot box locations, see Q45.

Q41. I have lost my return envelope. What do I do?

- A You can use an envelope of your own and put the return address and Freepost number on it. (You will not need to put a stamp on the envelope if you write the Freepost number on the envelope and post it in New Zealand.)

If you are not enrolled or not enrolled correctly on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll, you will need to complete an enrolment form for this. You can pick one up at any New Zealand Post agency, or you can enrol online at www.vote.nz or ring 0800 36 76 56 or send your name and address to Freetext 3676. Q44. I spoiled my voting document / I have made a mistake on my document. What can I do?

If necessary, we can issue you with a special voting document (for special vote availability, see Q45), but this will take time and require you to complete a declaration.

Q45. Where can I have a special vote?

- A Special votes can be obtained from:
- Council's Main Office, 515 Mackay Street, Thames
 - Coromandel Service Centre, 355 Kapanga Road, Coromandel
 - Mercury Bay Service Centre, 10 Monk Street, Whitianga
 - Tairua Library, 2 Manaia Street, Tairua

The availability of the above locations is subject to any COVID-19 restrictions in place. Should any COVID-19 restrictions be in place, refer to the council’s website.

Q46. I am going away and will not be here when the voting documents are posted out. How do I get to vote?

A You will need to apply for a special vote – for special vote availability, see Q45.

Special votes need to be applied for and can be posted overseas starting from the opening of the voting period (16 September 2022). An overseas address will need to be provided to the electoral officer in advance. Please note that all completed voting papers still need to arrive back in New Zealand and be with the electoral officer by noon on 8 October 2022. Please call 0800 922 822 for more information.

Q47. Do I have to vote for all the positions available for all the elections? If I don’t vote for all the positions or all the elections on my voting document, will all my votes be invalid?

A Under FPP you can vote for as many candidates as you want to but not more than the number of positions available on the voting document. So, if you are electing four community board members then you can vote for up to four candidates. Remember, for FPP you tick the candidates you want to elect.

You can decide not to vote for one or more of the different elections on your voting document. This does not invalidate votes for other elections on your voting document.

Q48. Why can’t I vote for a certain candidate who is standing for a different ward, community board or other election?

A You can only vote for the elections relevant to the area in which you live. You cannot vote for a candidate who is standing for example in another ward because you are not an elector of that other ward and it will not show on your voting document.

Q49. My partner’s document and mine are different and there are more/less things to vote for. Why is the list of candidates different?

A You will need to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Q50. I have received two voting documents. What do I do?

A You will need to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Q51. Do all the staff working on the election know who I voted for?

A No, your vote remains secret under the required separate roll scrutiny and vote counting procedures.

Q52. Can I help someone fill out their voting document?

A Under the Local Electoral Act 2001, you cannot interfere or influence any person as to how they can vote.

If authorised by a voter who is physically impaired, visually impaired or for whom English is a second language, a person can assist them to vote as directed by the voter.

Q53. What happens to all the voting documents after the elections?

A They are delivered to the Thames District Court and kept for 21 days so that the court can access them should there be any application for a recount or petition for inquiry.

After 21 days, the court is responsible for destroying them.

Q54. What is FPP and how do I vote in an FPP election?

A FPP stands for first past the post voting system and is used for the Thames-Coromandel District Council and the Waikato Regional Council elections.

The candidate or candidates that gets the most votes wins.

You should mark those you want to vote for with a tick in the circle. Do not vote for more than the number of candidates shown in the instructions.

Election Results

Q55. When will we know the results of the election?

- A Progress results will be announced as soon as practicable on the afternoon of Saturday 8 October 2022.

Preliminary results will be announced on Sunday morning 9 October 2022 once all votes received at the council offices (up until 12 noon on election day) have been delivered to the electoral office in Auckland and processed.

The official results will be announced when special votes have been checked and included in the final results, expected to be Thursday 13 October 2022.

Q56. How will I find out the results?

Candidates:

- A Progress and preliminary results will be advised as soon as practicable after the results are known, on Saturday 8 and Sunday 9 October respectively. This may be by email or by phone.

Voters:

- A Progress and preliminary results will be released to the media and placed on the council's website (www.tcdc.govt.nz) as soon as practicable once they are known, on Saturday 8 and Sunday 9 October respectively.

Q57. What do I need to do if I want to challenge the results of the election?

- A Under legislation, a candidate can challenge the declaration of results through either a judicial recount or a judicial inquiry. A candidate will have to provide reasons for the challenge and a deposit of $750 with the application to the Thames District Court.

A candidate may wish to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822 to discuss this.

Members

Q58. When do elected members take up their roles?

- A Elected members take up office the day after the official result has been declared by public notice. However, members cannot act until they have sworn the oath of office which is usually at the first meeting of the council or community board. This first meeting is usually held as soon as practicable after the final election results are known.

Q59. Who are elected members responsible to?

- A Ultimately the elected members' final responsibility is to the local community. The Minister of Local Government and the Auditor-General do have a role in ensuring that council follows the law.

Q60. Do elected members get paid and if so, how much?

- A The Remuneration Authority sets the salaries for the mayor and community board members.

For councillors, the Remuneration Authority sets a remuneration pool. The newly elected council will decide how to apply the pool of funding. Some expenses are also reimbursed.

Q61. Would being an elected member take up much time?

- A Being an elected member is a busy job that often involves meetings, events and speaking with community members outside of normal business hours. Flexibility and the ability to prioritise and manage time effectively are essential. This includes balancing a high volume of reading with a schedule of meetings and public interactions

Consequently, the mayor is considered a fulltime job and councillors and community board members are generally part-time jobs.

Q62. How many elected members for the Thames-Coromandel District Council are there?

- A Elections are being held for:
- mayor (elected 'at large')
 - councillors – 9 (elected from 4 wards)

- community board members – 20 (4 elected each from 5 community boards)
- Waikato Regional Council members – 1 member from the Thames-Coromandel General Constituency or 1 member from the Ngā Tae ki Uta Māori Constituency.

Election Signs

Q63. What are the requirements for election signs?

- A Election signs are referenced in the Local Electoral Act 2001, council's bylaw on advertising and signs and its signs policy – all of which must be complied with.

Local Electoral Act 2001

All election material, including signs and hoardings, must show an authorisation statement (name and physical address of the candidate or the candidate's agent). Not to do so is an electoral offence.

Refer section 113 Local Electoral Act 2001.

Council bylaw on advertising and signs

Council's bylaw contains rules on the size of signs (which vary according to the type of location), the number of signs allowed per property, and in some cases, the size of the lettering (text) on the sign.

Council's election signs policy

Election signs are only permitted on private land with the owner's consent. Election signs are not permitted on council property, including road reserves.

Election signs on state highway road reserve must obtain permission from the Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency.

For further information relating to the rules about signs, refer to www.tcdc.govt.nz/bylaws.
