Freedom Camping on the Coromandel

Freedom camping is permitted in some areas on the peninsula.

Please read the information on the back for all the places you can camp and the people who can help you. There are plenty of beautiful sites at one of our many camping grounds. We are constantly considering new freedom camping sites for self-contained vehicles so check www.tcdc.govt.nz/camping for updated information.

FREEDOM CAMPING
Freedom Camping is not permitted on our reserves and roadside areas unless signage specifies that it’s ok to stay overnight. Camping outside of designated areas is enforceable with an instant $200 fine. See our map for campgrounds and designated freedom camping sites for certified self-contained vehicles. For more information contact TCDC, visit www.tcdc.govt.nz/camping or contact one of the information centres listed.
